

Course title	Language Practice and Application II
Course code	ENG_125
Course type	Compulsory
Level	Foundation
Year / Semester	1 st Year / 2 nd Semester
Course purpose and objectives	Course Purpose This module will provide opportunities for students to practise and apply the language skills they have acquired in real-life academic and social situations. Students will engage in role-plays, and discussions. They will also participate in collaborative projects and oral presentations, which will strengthen their teamwork and presentation skills. They will learn how to express themselves confidently, clearly and politely in a formal or informal register and contribute to group discussions. Course Objectives <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Provide opportunities for students to apply acquired language skills in authentic academic and social settings, fostering practical language use; 2. Develop students' ability to express themselves confidently, clearly, and politely in both formal and informal registers, promoting effective communication; 3. Encourage active participation in role-plays and discussions to simulate real-life scenarios, enabling students to practice language skills in context; 4. Foster teamwork skills through collaborative projects, allowing students to work together, share ideas, and communicate effectively within a group setting; 5. Cultivate students' oral presentation skills, enabling them to articulate ideas coherently, present information effectively, and engage audiences; 6. Promote and reinforce confidence in expressing thoughts and opinions, contributing meaningfully to group discussions, debates, or presentations. 7. Enhance active and constructive participation in group discussions, allowing students to share insights, respond to others' viewpoints, and build on collective knowledge. 8. Enhance critical thinking skills by articulating viewpoints, defending arguments, and engaging in constructive discussions using the acquired language skills; 9. Equip students with the ability to adapt their communication style to different audiences and contexts, fostering flexibility in language use.